

Guidelines and Official Rules

Please carefully read and observe all eligibility guidelines, submission requirements, and rules below:

1. Eligible participants: Participants must be enrolled and in good standing at a Solano County public or private high school or middle school (grades 6-12).
2. Submission limits: Video submissions are limited to one video entry per student as an individual or as a team. All submissions are final.
3. Video length: The video run time must be 60 seconds (total running time).
4. Submission requirements: Each student must complete an Official Entry Form for each video submission (limit of one entry per student or group). All video entries (whether by e-mail or on a USB flash drive) must be accompanied with the following information: (1) a video title, (2) student name(s), (3) school name, (4) an e-mail address and (5) daytime telephone number.
5. Video format: All videos must be submitted in one of the following movie/file formats: mp4, mov, wmv, avi, or mpg on a USB flash drive or by e-mail to SolanoVideoContest@gmail.com.
6. Contest deadline: A completed video and signed Official Entry Form(s) must be received by the Solano County Water Agency 5 p.m. on Wednesday, April 12, 2016.
7. Where to submit video entries:
Submit by e-mail to SolanoVideoContest@gmail.com or USB flash drive via mail or in person to:

Andy Florendo
Solano County Water Agency
Attn: Water Awareness Video Contest
810 Vaca Valley Parkway, Suite 203
Vacaville, CA 95688

If your file is large, you may use one of the following services to transmit your video:

www.sendspace.com
www.dropsend.com
www.filefactory.com
www.hightail.com

8. Video theme: Entries must focus on the 2017 theme: Water Leaks, Gotta Catch Them All! Videos that focus on other topics will be disqualified.
9. Video Contest Coordinator: Please contact Christine Kohn (916-944-1631) or Chris Perry (916-416-7367) or SolanoVideoContest@gmail.com with questions.

10. Videos will be judged on the following:

- Movie Content and Accuracy: Does it follow the video theme? How focused is the message?
- Audio/Sound: Is the sound sufficiently loud? Are voices clear and distinguished? Utilized appropriate sound effects.
- Style and Organization: Shows good organization of content and story line.
- Videography–Techniques–Clarity: The camera was held steady with minimum rock/shake. The video was shot at various “takes,” camera angles, etc. Whether the zoom was carefully/creatively used or not. Kept within the 60-second time limit.
- Entertainment Value and Originality: Is it interesting and captivating?

10. Entry conditions: By submitting an entry, you agree:

- To abide by all rules;
- To accept as final the decisions of the judges;
- That the Solano County Water Agency and member agencies reserve the right to exhibit submitted videos unlimited number of times and in/through a limitless number of locations/media without paying you a fee and with no further notification;
- That if selected as a finalist, you must either: I) certify that your video has not been submitted elsewhere; or II) give satisfactory evidence that you now have the full right to submit and publish it;
- That if you are a winner, information you have submitted concerning yourself and your prize may be utilized for publicity or advertising purposes without further consent or compensation to you;
- That all related clearances and permissions must be obtained prior to submission. It is your responsibility to obtain signed releases from any person whose recognizable likeness appears in your video and to obtain permission to use all other copyrighted materials that was used in your film including still images, 3-D objects, and music or musical compositions. You will assume all liability that may arise from lacking clearances and permissions.

11. Prizes and winner selection: A group of finalists will be selected from among eligible submissions by a panel of water efficiency experts and community leaders. The top rated videos may be subject to public viewing at solanosaveswater.org and/or other venues. Prizes will be awarded to the top three films as judged and scored by the reviewing panel. Cash awards: 1st Place $1,500, 2nd Place $1,000, 3rd Place $500. Each cash award will be split with 50 percent of the prize going to the individual(s) who submitted the video, and 50 percent to the sponsoring teacher. An awards presentation will be held in May 2017.

12. Winner notification: All winners will be notified by phone, mail, and/or e-mail based on the information provided on their entry registration form.
